Older Driving Safety Laws, Medical Issues and Safety Concerns
Mon., April 8th, 5:30-6:30 p.m.

This session will provide guidance on maintaining your independence to continue driving and also educates older drivers, family members, healthcare providers, and law enforcement officials on laws, medical issues, and safety concerns. Increasing age is not an indicator that you have to stop driving, but a time for assessing and making adjustments.

This class is sponsored by a grant from the Oklahoma Highway Safety Office.

Book Discussions

War, Not-War, and Peace: A Pulitzer Prize Centennial Series

The books in this series reflect a deep commitment to presenting Pulitzer winners detailing both the active elements of war as well as the long-lived legacies of war, in those periods optimistically called 'peace.'

Monthly discussions will be held the first Monday of each month in the upstairs room of the library and begin at 6:30 p.m. Books will be available to pick up at the front desk about a month before first program begins. Books and dates are as follows:

Mar. 4 Maus by Art Spiegelman

The author-illustrator traces his father's imprisonment in a Nazi concentration camp through a series of disarming and unusual cartoons in this Pulitzer Prize-winning novel.

Apr. 1 Neon Venacular by Yusef Komunyakaa

An award-winning poet's testimony of the Vietnam war.

May 6 All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr

A blind French girl on the run from the German occupation and a German orphan-turned-Resistance tracker struggle with respective beliefs after meeting on the Brittany coast.

If you are not able to participate in the discussions but are interested in reading the books, we will be happy to order them for you through interlibrary loan. Ask at the front desk for more information.

Books, theme materials, and services for this series are provided by "Let's Talk About It, Oklahoma," a project of Oklahoma Humanities with funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Funding for this series is provided by grants from the Inasmuch Foundation and the Kirkpatrick Family Fund. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in these programs do not necessarily represent those of OH or NEH.
